Personal Detail

Hi, I'm Kapil – a passionate and dedicated React/Next.js Developer with a strong foundation in front-end development. I am currently pursuing my Bachelor of Computer Applications (BCA) in my 7th semester, with a keen interest in creating intuitive, responsive, and high-performance web applications.

Work-Experience

- Kutumba Tech Pvt.Ltd

React/NextJs Developer – (Dec 2023 – Aug 2024)

- IT Club (Hackathon)

Figma project – (Nov 2023)

Projects

- Kutumba Bazar – E-commerce

KUTUMBA BAZAR is an exciting e-commerce project based in Nepal that encourages products from remote communities to be showcased on an online platform.

- MediServ – Online medicine Provider

An online medicine provider that offers a convenient platform for users to order prescription and over-the-counter medicines from the comfort of their homes.

- Streamly –

An online movie-watching platform that provides users with access to a vast library of films, TV shows, and documentaries. With the help of my friend, we have able to do this project successfully.

- SecureU – Online security Guard company

It is a platform where we provide online security guard service which have both admin and costumer access points. It was my first project that I have done in my college.
